1 3. WHEREAS Azoogole and ASIS (collectively, the "Parties"; each separately
2 a "Party") have met-and-conferred, and continue to meet-and-confer, about the
3 appropriate scope of discovery relating to, and the potential settlement of, the Action.

5 4. WHEREAS the Parties believe that their ongoing meet-and-confer process
6 would be facilitated by the Court's resolution of two discreet issues of law, as identified
7 below.

8 5. WHEREAS the Parties do not intend the Court to address questions of 9 fact, but only to address these two discreet issues of law.

10 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED BETWEEN THE PARTIES AS 11 FOLLOWS:

13 1. Azoogole's responses to ASIS's First Set of Requests for Admission are 14 HEREBY AMENDED as set forth in the responses served by Azoogole on ASIS on March 15 9, 2007.

17 2. No later than April 11, 2007 the Parties shall submit separate motions for 18 summary adjudication ("Cross-Motions") on the following two discreet issues of law:

- 19
- 20 • Whether the following types of evidence, or any of them, are admissible on the 21 question of whether a CAN-SPAM defendant that did not itself originate or 22 transmit a commercial electronic mail message procured the origination or 23 transmission of such commercial electronic mail message within the meaning of 24 15 U.S.C. §§ 7702(12) and 7706(g)(2):
 - 25 ○ Evidence that the defendant has a reputation for initiating commercial 26 electronic mail messages in violation of CAN-SPAM (15 U.S.C. §7701 et 27 seq.).
 - 28 ○ Evidence that third parties in privity with the defendant in relation to Internet marketing activities have a reputation for initiating commercial electronic mail messages in violation of CAN-SPAM (15 U.S.C. §7701 et. seq.).

- o Evidence that the defendant has—in fact—initiated commercial electronic mail messages, other than those at issue, in violation of CAN-SPAM (15 U.S.C. §7701 et. seq.).
- o Evidence that third parties in privity with the defendant in relation to Internet marketing activities have—in fact—initiated commercial electronic mail messages, other than those at issue, in violation of CAN-SPAM (15 U.S.C. §7701 et. seq.).
- Whether a defendant can be said to advertise, within the meaning of California Business and Professions Code Section 17529.5(a), in a commercial e-mail advertisement that neither mentions nor references the defendant nor any third party in privity with the defendant, nor any property, goods, services, or extensions of credit as specifically offered by the defendant or any third party in privity with the defendant.

3. Each Party shall have the right to submit a reply brief in opposition to the other Party's Cross-Motion, which shall be filed no later than April 20, 2007.

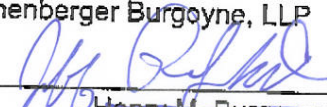

4. The Court shall hear oral arguments by the Parties on the Cross-Motions, if the Court so desires, on May 4, 2007 at 9:30 a.m.

5. The Case Management Conference previously scheduled for April 20, 2007 shall be rescheduled for May 4, 2007 at 9:30 a.m.
